W. C. T. U. MEETING

Held in Lexington, Tuesday, February 24, 1914.

Sleet, snow, cold-wind, blizzard, did not daunt members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union executive committee. From North, South, East and West these brave soldiers of the White Ribbon Army gathered in the M. E. church in Lexington at 9 a. m., Tuesday, the twenty-fourth, to pray, plan and confer together to promote the work of the organization.

When President Nelle Burger, called meeting to order the five state officers, eight lecturers and organizers and twenty-seven district presidents, responded to roll call.

Mrs. Lettie Hill May of St. Louis, the new Corresponding Secretary, gave an able Bible reading, and a real sermon of encouragement, from I Kings 19th chapter.

The songs of praise and song-creation were led by State Musical Director, who is also a national lecturer, Mrs. Mary L. Wood of Mt. Vernon.

The new State President, Mrs. Nelle G. Burger, the new Recording and Corresponding Secretaries, Mesdames Emma Pitzer and Lettie Hill May, the new State Treasurer, Mrs. Neve Thomas, and the Vice President, Miss Rovena Shaner, all spoke words of greeting, cheer, and encouragement at the opening service.

Greetings were spoken by the lecturers and organizers too. New district presidents were introduced, among them was Mrs. E. O. Lucas of Hannibal, who traveled more than a hundred miles bringing her thirteen months old son, Alva Eugene, was enlisted on the White Ribbon Cradle Roll, and dedicated to the temperance work.

Plans for two grand National Woman's Christian Temperance Union mass meetings in Kansas City, Mo., March 25th, with Mary Harris Arnold of Georgia, speaker, were discussed and adopted. One meeting will be in the Independence Avenue Christian Church at 3 p. m., the other in the Central M. E. Church, 11th St. and Paseo, at 8 p. m. The National and State Officers, and State Presidents of adjoining states will be present. A three weeks publicity campaign is planned. Overflow meetings will be arranged.

April was voted as Institute month and all unions in State urged to hold institutes.

A Department of Health was adopted, and Dr. Viola Peak of Springfield was elected State Superintendent.

The local committee of W. C. T. U. and Missionary Women were introduced, and were given the White Ribbon salute by the executive members who sang with enthusiasm, "We're Glad We Came to Lexington."

Mrs. L. O. Middleton of Kansas City, emphasized some special plans for the Scientific Temperance Instruction department. Mrs. Middleton addressed the students at Wentworth Military Academy and at Central College on Tuesday. On Wednesday she addressed the students at the High School. All with a view to introducing regular instruction in these institutions.

The posters, leaflets and periodicals of the State and National organizations were discussed and plans adopted to increase their circulation. President Burger propounded plans for co-operating with the Anti-Saloon League for the passage of the county unit bill. This was discussed with earnestness and unanimously adopted.

Several new provisional organizations were appointed. Plans for co-operating with Missouri Suffrage association through the W. C. T. U. franchise department were adopted.

The annual State Convention was set for Sept. 22-25, Tuesday to Friday, to meet in Springfield. Plans for its conduct were discussed and adopted.

Plans for increasing membership of organization and for raising funds for the work, and other routine business were disposed of.

"More business was dispatched at this state executive meeting than at any previous one" said President Burger.

Upon motion of Mrs. Fannie L. Taylor, Superintendent of press work, the following resolution was enthusiastically adopted:

"Resolved that the members of this Missouri W. C. T. U., State Executive Mid-year meeting extend a rising vote of thanks to the local W. C. T. U. of Lexington for their untiring labor in providing for our comfort and entertainment; to the Missionary sisters and all who aided them; to those who have received us into their hospitable homes; to the official boards of the churches open for our meetings; to the ministers for their kindly words of encouragement and sympathy; to the musicians who contributed so much to the programmes; to editors of every newspaper in Lexington, giving publicity to our work; to everyone who aided in any way to the comfort and success of this meeting."

At the close of the last business session, two recruits were formally received into the Union. The ceremony by which this is done is very beautiful and impressive. One of the novitiates, Miss Zantmeyer of Higginsville, then gave two readings that evinced much talent, and gave promise of a useful membership. Miss Zantmeyer received her training at Central College; so Lexington has some claim upon her.

The spirit of harmony and Christian love that pervaded all the sessions of these purposeful women, was a feature that could not but impress anyone first attending such a convention. May their work prosper and their influence increase until our whole nation is raised to their high ideals.
